Newark Police Arrest Man for Violation of Privacy

On November 21st, Newark Police responded to the Iron Hill Brewery for a report of a suspicious person in the bathroom. Officers were advised of a white male that had been observed in the female bathroom at that location on several occasions. Employees stated that the male hides in the stalls and unscrews the lights to darken the area around him. The suspect was not on scene when officers arrived.

On November 28th, Newark Police responded to Iron Hill for a similar report. Officers were able to contact the subject and they identifed him as Stephen Sackett. After investigating both incidents, Stephen Sackett was arrested on December 4th.

Defendant 1: Stephen Sackett (age 29)
Address: Newark, DE 19711

Charges: Violation of Privacy
              Criminal Trespass, 3rd Degree

Sackett was released on $750.00 unsecured bond.

Anyone with additional information on this incident should contact Detective James Skinner at 302-366-7100 ext. 3135 or james.skinner@cj.state.de.us .
You can send an anonymous text message tip by texting 302NPD and your message to TIP411.
Information can also be provided anonymously to Crime Stoppers at 1-800-TIP-3333 or via the internet at www.tipsubmit.com where a reward may be available.

The Newark Police Department affirms that all defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
