FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUBJECT: NPD Investigate Robbery - Seek Public's Help Identifying Suspect

The Newark Police Department is investigating a robbery which occurred on September 10th, 2012 at approximately 10:15pm at the Exxon Convenience Store located at 820 South College Avenue. During this incident a white male suspect entered the store, presented cash and ordered cigarettes from the 33 year old male clerk. When the clerk retrieved the cigarettes and opened the register, the suspect reached over the counter and removed an undisclosed amount of currency from the register. The suspect then fled the store and entered into the front passenger seat of a waiting vehicle. The vehicle was last seen fleeing southbound on South College Avenue. The clerk was not injured.

The suspect is described as a 25-30 year old white male approximately 6'2" tall with a thin build and dark colored hair. The suspect was wearing a flat brimmed red or orange baseball cap, black t-shirt, grey or green athletic pants and dark colored shoes.

The vehicle is described as a dark colored large four door sedan operated by an unknown subject.

Still photos of the suspect and vehicle are attached with this press release. A copy of surveillance video can be retrieved using the City of Newark Video Drop Box by visiting the following website: <http://newark.de.us/VideoBox/>
