

WEEKLY REPORT
02/03/13-02/09/13

On Thursday, February 7, 2013, Cpl. Jones responded to the Dunkin Donuts on E. Main Street in regards to a subject that was sleeping in the bathroom and refused to leave. Cpl. Jones discovered the bathroom was locked and knocked on the door several times. After there was no response from the subject, Cpl. Jones obtained a key and opened the door. The officer opened the door, observed the subject lying on the ground, and ordered the subject to leave the bathroom. The subject, after observing the uniformed officer through the mirror, said "No" and attempted to close the door. After several more commands, the subject got up and left the bathroom where he was taken into custody. The subject was identified as Tourean Daniels (DOB 10/24/1983). He was charged with 1 count of 2nd degree trespassing, issued a no-contact order with Dunkin Donuts and was committed to Howard R. Young Correctional Institution in lieu of $100 secured bail.

On Monday, February 13, 2013, three new Police Officer recruits began their first day of their careers with the Newark Police Department. All of them have previous experience in the field of emergency services: Aaron Olicker was a firefighter as well as a part-time dispatcher for the Newark Police Department, and Daniel Burgess and Taras Gerasimov were seasonal Police Officers in New Jersey. They will be working on a variety of tasks around the station until they begin their police training at the Delaware State Police Academy on March 4th.

Also on February 13th, L3 Mobile Vision started the installation of 16 in-car cameras for the fleet of Newark Police Department. 11 cameras were funded through a grant from the Office of Highway Safety, and 5 were funded through a grant from the Attorney General's office.

The celebration of Fat Tuesday passed without any major incidents.
