FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUBJECT: Newark Police Investigating Armed Robbery of Pizza Delivery Driver

Newark Police are investigating the armed robbery of a Domino's pizza delivery driver that occurred on today's date at approximately 1:50am in the parking lot of 500 Stamford Drive.

The victim, a 20 year-old male, reported that he was delivering two pizzas to 500 Stamford Drive, Apartment D. When the victim arrived to 500 Stamford Drive, he discovered that there was no apartment D, and all the apartments were numbers. Becoming suspicious, the victim went back to his vehicle. After getting in his vehicle, a white male then approached the driver's side window and stated "Give me what you got" while displaying a small black handgun. The victim turned over an undisclosed amount of US currency and his Samsung Galaxy S5 cell phone. The suspect then fled from the area by foot.

The suspect is described as a white male between 5'6" and 5'9" with a thin build. He was wearing a black hooded sweatshirt with the hood over his head, a black bandana covering his face and black gloves. No further description is available.

No surveillance footage is available.

Anyone with additional information on this incident should contact Det. Morgan Fountain at 302-366-7110 ext. 133 or morgan.fountain@CJ.State.de.us.
