

WEEKLY REPORT
05/11/14-05/17/14

The Memorial Day Parade event went very smoothly with no major traffic issues. As usual, the Parks and Recreation Department did a great job in planning for the event.

On May 22nd, City Manager Carol Houck promoted Corporals Christopher Jones and Michael Watson to the rank of Master Corporal during a ceremony held in the Council Chambers. In addition, various other awards were presented to officers during the program.

The police promotional oral boards were conducted from May 19th-21st. Twenty-five officers were interviewed for the positions of Master Corporal and Sergeant. The board consisted of Deputy City Manager Andrew Haines, Captain Peter Sawyer from the Delaware State Police and Captain Matthew Kurten from the Wilmington Police Department.

Lieutenant Feeney, Sergeant VanCampen, and Sergeant Aniunas are completing the West Point Command and Leadership training program. This intensive eleven week training course is sponsored by the New Jersey Chiefs of Police Association and the New Castle County Police Department. A graduation ceremony will be held on May 29th for all three officers.

Plans are currently established and are still being adjusted as needed for the University of Delaware's graduation day. Vice President Joe Biden will be the Commencement speaker. Due to increased security measures, attendees will be admitted to the campus earlier than usual. Newark Officers assigned to the graduation detail will begin work at 4:00 a.m.

Sergeant VanCampen has met with members of the Chapel Street playhouse to discuss graffiti issues. He is working on investigating the price for specialized cameras and alarms to help combat graffiti.
