

WEEKLY REPORT
07/06/14-07/12/14

Our two newest police officers, Nate Graber and Adam Heath have graduated the police academy and are now in training with their field training officers.

The Traffic Committee was held on Tuesday, July 15th. Approximately a dozen residents attended the meeting along with many of their children. Also in attendance was Mayor Polly Sierer and Councilwoman Marge Hadden. Two residents had requested an extension of the "No Parking Anytime" and "Resident Parking Only" be extended on Ritter Lane, to include their homes. Based on information supplied by Councilman Robert Gifford, who was unable to attend the meeting, the committee voted to recommend that council extend the parking restriction and designation on Ritter Lane to 100 feet west of Townsend Road. This will only impact the petitioner's homes. The residents were very grateful and expressed their appreciation of the attention given by Councilmembers Gifford and Hadden.

Many of the residents expressed concern with speeding and drivers who fail to stop signs in the area of Cheltenham Road and the surrounding area. The many children that attended the meeting were a visual reminder of the need for traffic safety. Increased enforcement and signage were discussed by Lt. Hargrove, Tom Coleman, and the rest of the committee with the residents. At the end of the discussion, one resident summed up the meeting by stating this was a fine example of responsive government with the city and residents working together, and that is why he and his wife moved to Newark. Mayor Sierer thanked him for the nice compliment.

On Saturday, August 2nd, Chief Tiernan, Lt. Hargrove, Lt. Farrall, and Lt. Feeney will be participating in a railroad safety training exercise.
