

WEEKLY REPORT
01/11/15-01/17/15

Newark's newest police recruit, Casey Rivers will be officially sworn in by the City Secretary on February 2nd. City Manager Carol Houck and Chief Tiernan will also be there to welcome Casey and witness the oath of office. Officer Rivers will graduate from the Delaware State Police Academy on February 6th and then will begin field training.

Interviews will be conducted on January 29th and 30th to fill the vacant police lieutenant position.

Lt. William Hargrove has begun the planning process for the upcoming Citizens Police Academy. This was a popular program run by the police department for many years, however, due to budget and staffing constraints have been unable to offer the program for the past few years.

The News Journal and the Newark Post both had positive stories this past week regarding Newark's steady decline in crime continuing in 2014.

The Newark Police Department and University of Delaware Police Department have been participating in joint crowd control training. The training is instructed by members of the Delaware State Police.
