SUBJECT OF PRESS RELEASE

Car Jacking, Exxon, 820 South College Ave

On July 15th, 2015 at approximately 8:12 p.m. the victim stopped at the Exxon gas station to pick up some air fresheners. He parked his car next to the building but left the keys in the ignition. While in the store he observed the suspect get into the driver side of his vehicle and start to pull away. The victim ran from the store and dove into the driver side window. While fighting with the suspect the car quickly backed from its parking spot and struck the gas pumps knocking them from their base. This threw the victim onto the ground and allowed the suspect to escape with the vehicle. The vehicle was last seen travelling north on South College Ave.

The victim is a Male (34) from Newark, DE 19711. He suffered minor injuries and refused medical treatment.

The stolen vehicle is a 2005 Cadillac CTS, Black, with an unknown Delaware Temporary tag. The victim had just purchased the vehicle on July 12, 2015.

The suspect is described as follows;

Male, black, 20-30 years of age, 5"10" to 6'0" tall, short hair, gray hoodie, black shorts, tan work boots.
