Search Warrant Yields LSD and Edible Marijuana

May 24, 2016 – On Friday May 20, 2016 members of the Newark Police Department Street Crimes Unit and officers from the Natural Resources Police State Parks Enforcement executed a search warrant at an apartment located in the 200 block of East Main Street in Newark. This investigation began on May 8th when Officer Walton from State Parks Enforcement came into contact with Dylan Nunn in the White Clay Creek State Park while investigating a complaint along the Pomeroy Trail within White Clay Creek State Park. At that time, Nunn was found to be in possession of 460 grams of edible marijuana packaged for sale. During the search warrant of Nunn's apartment on May 20th, officers located 62 dosage units of LSD, 3,522 grams of raw and edible marijuana products along with associated drug paraphernalia and several stolen street signs belonging to the City of Newark and the State Parks. It was discovered that Nunn was manufacturing edible marijuana at this location. Dylan Nunn was taken into custody without incident. Nunn was arraigned through Justice of the Peace Court 2 and released after posting $50,000 secured bond.
