Newark Police Department Investigating Suspicious Incident

June 27, 2016 – On June 26th at approximately 11:30AM, Newark Police responded to the 200 block of Dallam Road in reference to a suspicious vehicle. The resident of a house on that block told officers that he was working in the garage while his three-year old daughter was playing on the grass outside. The father stepped inside for a minute, and when he came back out his daughter told him that a stranger pulled up in a vehicle, stopped, and waved to her. Based on the daughter's explanation, it is possible the the stranger was motioning for her to come to the vehicle. The vehicle then continued eastbound on Dallam Road.

The vehicle is described as possibly a white van or SUV with three windows. The driver is described as having medium to dark-color skin and wearing an orange shirt.

No security footage is available.
