

WEEKLY REPORT

Administration Division:

- Lt. Nelson is meeting with a UD journalism class on April 20th to answer questions about NPD and police work in general.
- Bill Hargrove has begun training officers on the new evidence submission program, which eliminates the need for officers to hand write evidence forms when submitting evidence.
- During the week of April 10th, Sgt. Jones and Lt. Rieger attended the Force Science Institute course. Force Science is the research and application of unbiased scientific principles and processes to determine the true nature of human behavior in high stress and deadly force encounters.

Criminal Investigations Division:

- Lt. Rieger along with Sgt. Bryda, Lt. Aniunas and Sgt. Jones will be meeting on Thursday to discuss the recent training through Force Science and how it applies to the Newark Police Department policies and procedures.
- The suspect in the unlawful sexual contact investigations has been identified. He was subsequently arrested and charged by Det. Anderson for two incidents of Unlawful Sexual Contact and Harassment that occurred on April 14th as well as an incident of Harassment and Trespassing which occurred on April 12th. This was great work and investigation by Det. Anderson.

Patrol:

- On Tuesday, members of the Patrol Division attended sexual assault investigation training conducted by Lt. Rubin. This training will continue for several weeks until all units have received the training update.
- On Monday, Lt. Rubin participated in an interview with NBC 10 discussing drugged driving and DRE testing of impaired drivers.
- On Wednesday and Thursday, members of the Patrol Division attended mandatory ALERRT training.

Special Operations Unit:

- During the week, SOU will attend several meetings involving order maintenance issues at locations throughout the City.
- On Thursday, SOU will attend a monthly meeting with the Newark Bike Project.
- On Wednesday and Thursday, SOU will assist with patrol coverage while officers attend mandatory ALERRT training.
- On Saturday, members of SOU will assist with a March for Peace rally.

Traffic:

- On Tuesday, Sgt. Davis attended the Traffic Committee meeting providing information on two traffic studies related to the Traffic Committee agenda.

Note: Typically, the YTD numbers are generated by adding the current week statistics to the YTD statistics from the previous reporting period. Periodically, the numbers for this report will be generated from the beginning of the year to capture data that may have otherwise been omitted due to a processing delay or other administrative anomaly, more accurately updating the year-to-date totals.
