

Weekly Report

Auxiliary Services:

- On May 31st, Captain Van Campen attended a SLEAF meeting. Two applications (equipment to support DRE program and training) were reviewed and approved by the committee.
- On June 6th, Captain Van Campen and Sgt. Truman Bolden (Patrol Division) attended an active shooter tabletop exercise at the University of Delaware.
- During the week, preparations for the Command Post are being finalized for the New Night celebration on June 10th.
- Text to 911 services continues to be developed and tested by the State 911 Board. The board has reached out to NPD communications and may request our participation in the testing phase in the near future. No definitive implementation date has been released.

Criminal Division:

- On June 6th, the entire Criminal Division attended firearms training including use of force training and range qualifications.
- On June 7th, Lt. Rieger and Lt. Nelson will attend a press conference held at the U.S. Attorney's Office. The press conference is the result of a lengthy criminal investigation resulting in the seizure of a large quantity of Heroin by the DEA task force to which two NPD detectives are assigned.

Administration:

- On June 9th, Cpl. Mease will conclude his duties as the School Resource Officer and will be temporarily assigned to the Special Operations Unit until the fall school year begins.

Patrol Division:

- On June 5th, Mayor Sierer received a letter complimenting Officer Andrew Golden for his interaction with a local family who became stranded on the James Hall Trail during a recent storm. The letter read, in part: "Thanks so much to Officer Andrew! And such a responsible action of providing timely help to the city residents must not be unnoticed. We are proud of our officers!"
- On June 5th, Officers Whitt and Olicker began training as the two newest members of the Department's Crisis Negotiations Team. The team uses various techniques to communicate with people who are threatening violence or in need of crisis assistance.
- On June 6th, K9 Officers Sharpe and Stevens conducted a K9 demonstration at Downes Elementary School.
- On June 6th, at a ceremony at the Newark Country Club, Cpl. Rob Sharpe received his recognition as the Lions Club Officer of the Year.

- During the week, Officer Whitehead will conduct a temporary job rotation with the Street Crimes Unit. The temporary job rotation is designed to broaden an officer's experience and skills needed for the various specialized units within the department.

Special Operations Unit:

- On June 6th, Sgt. D'Elia and Cpl. Saunders attended firearms training including use of force training and range qualifications.
- On June 7th, M/Cpl. Conover will participate in Camp Counselor orientation at the George Wilson Center.
