

On January 31st, Chief Tiernan and Lt. Nelson met with the police chiefs of the major police departments in Delaware including Wilmington, Dover, DE State Police and NCC Police. Also in attendance were the Agents in Charge of each Federal Law Enforcement Agency. The meeting was called by the U.S. Attorney for Delaware, so that the larger police departments can discuss mutual ways to share information and work together to address common criminal issues and suspects who operate across jurisdictional lines.

Patrol Division:

On Monday, January 29th and Tuesday, January 30th, Patrol Platoons A, B and C attended mandatory two-day training. Training consisted of those courses of instruction which are mandated by the Council on Police Training, CALEA and Delaware State Law. Lt. Rieger and officers from the Administration and Criminal Division covered patrol responsibilities while officers attended training.

Officer Brian Whitehead continues in his third week of Drug Recognition Expert (DRE) training. This portion of training requires practical application utilizing the information learned during the previous week. As part of that application, Officer Whitehead and the other DRE students participated in Field Certifications at Baltimore City Central Booking where they were required to conduct evaluations on arrestees admitted into the facility who were drug impaired.

Special Operations Unit (SOU):

ON Monday, January 29th and Tuesday, January 30th, members of the Special Operations Unit participated in the aforementioned two-day mandatory in-service training.

On Wednesday, Sgt. D'Elia began the Command and Leadership Program. The training program, hosted by the New Castle County Police Department in conjunction with the New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police (NJSACOP), provides a rigorous leadership curriculum developed through collaboration with the United States Military Academy at West Point and NJSACOP. In recognition of the challenges facing law enforcement, the program develops police leaders with a blend of theory and application.

On Thursday, February 1st, the Special Operations Unit will conduct mobile enforcement to include alcohol violations.

On Friday, February 2nd, members of the Special Operations Unit, along with Deputy Chief Farrall and Lieutenant Rieger will attend the UD Ice Hockey First Responders appreciation night at the Fred Rust Ice Arena.

Traffic Unit:

On Monday, January 29th and Tuesday, January 30th, members of the Traffic Unit participated in the aforementioned two-day mandatory in-service training.

Wednesday through Friday, the Traffic Unit will conduct traffic enforcement at various locations throughout the city including Yorkshire and Elkton Road based on citizen complaints. The speed trailer remains deployed on Dillwyn Drive reminding motorists of the posted speed limit.

Auxiliary Services:

PSAP Manager Brian Cannon graduated from the New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police Command and Leadership Academy.

On Monday, January 29th and Tuesday, January 30th, Capt. Van Campen assisted with patrol coverage due to in-service training.

Administration Division:

On Tuesday, January 30th, Lt. Rubin presented a block of instruction on Legal Updates at the department-wide in-service training.

Sgt. Jones facilitated the department-wide in-service training.

On Monday, January 29th, St. Jones presented a block of instruction on use of force involving mentally ill persons at the department-wide in-service training.

Sgt. Bryda and M/Cpl. Potocki covered the road during in-service training.

Cp. Walker and Cpl. Saunders presented a section on Fair & Impartial policing during in-service training.

Criminal Investigations Division:

Sgt. Maiura completed S.W.A.T. leadership school hosted by the National Tactical Officer's Association.

Detectives were assigned the following cases for follow-up investigation: Fraud, 2 Strong Arm Robberies, 2 Commercial Burglaries, Residential Burglary.

On January 24th members of the Street Crimes Unit arrested Shane Scott for Possession of a Firearm by a Person Prohibited and other charges following an investigation. Scott fled from officers in his vehicle and crashed a short time later on Route 4 at Prides Crossing. Scott then fled on foot into a nearby neighborhood and was arrested by detectives on Rustic Drive. A search of the area of the collision scene revealed a loaded 9mm handgun and marijuana.
