Summary:

On the above listed date and time, Newark Police were dispatched to the above location for a report of a home invasion style robbery. During the investigation, police learned that the three above-described suspects entered the residence via the front door. The suspects confronted 4 of the occupants of the house on the second floor. The suspects ordered the four occupants into a bedroom and held them at gunpoint while the suspects removed property from the victims. The stolen property included wallets, an undisclosed amount of United States Currency and illegal drugs. Allegations have surfaced that one of the victims allegedly sold drugs from the residence. The suspects then fled the residence in an unknown direction.

During the incident, one of the suspects referred to another suspect by the name "Rob."

None of the victims was injured during the incident.

This incident was reported one hour after it occurred.
