FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUBJECT: Robbery at Fairfield News

On Thanksgiving morning, Thursday November 27 at 9:10 a.m. an unknown person committed a robbery at the Fairfield News located in the Fairfield Shopping Center at 419 New London Road, Newark. The suspect entered the store and asked the clerk about magazines. The employee directed the suspect to the display, where he perused the magazines until another customer left the store.

The suspect then approached the clerk, implied he had a gun, and demanded cash. The victim, a 51 year-old female, surrendered money from the register. The suspect left the store and ran to a car parked in the lot. He was last seen driving northbound on New London Road.

The suspect is a white male, around 35 years of age, 5' 9" tall, 175 to 200 lbs, brown hair, clean-shaven, wearing a dark colored zip-up jacket. The vehicle was a red 4-door Nissan with a box-like shape.

The victim was not injured.

Information regarding this incident should be reported to Det. Greg D'Elia at 302-366-7110 ext 132 or Greg.Delia@cj.state.de.us. or to Crime Stoppers (1-800-TIP-3333) where information can be left anonymously and a reward may be available.
