

WEEKLY REPORT

9/6-9/12/09

The Fall Crime Suppression Initiative continues to be a success. Last week, officers made the following arrests: 32 criminal arrests, 26 alcohol arrests, and 2 Driving Under the Influence arrests. There were no street robberies or assaults reported. Each weekend, officers continue to monitor large parties on Cleveland Avenue, Wilbur Street, and the surrounding area.

Overall crime is down in the city. So far compared to last year Part 1 Offenses (serious crime) have decreased by 201 incidents and Part 2 Crimes (assault, criminal mischief, etc) have decreased by 580 incidents. At the same time, calls for service to the police department have increased by 1,716. Officers have done a tremendous job of decreasing crime while responding to more calls for service.

Compared to this time last year, motor vehicle accidents in the city have decreased by 119. However, the number of traffic summons continues to decrease as traffic officers are assigned to other duties and the absence of two full time parking enforcement officers due to injury.
